Volcano Health Care Needs Community Meeting 2/7/26

The Volcano Health Collaborative (VHC) has been reactivated to assist the Volcano Community Association to bring medical and health care services to Volcano. As some of you may remember, the VHC was established in January 2005 by many dedicated residents who first identified this unmet need.

The VHC will be holding a community meeting on Saturday, February 7 at 6:00 pm at Cooper Center. The purpose of the meeting is to summarize the results of the Medical and Healthcare Needs Assessment conducted by the Volcano Community Association. Residents are welcome to attend and provide input for the planning process.

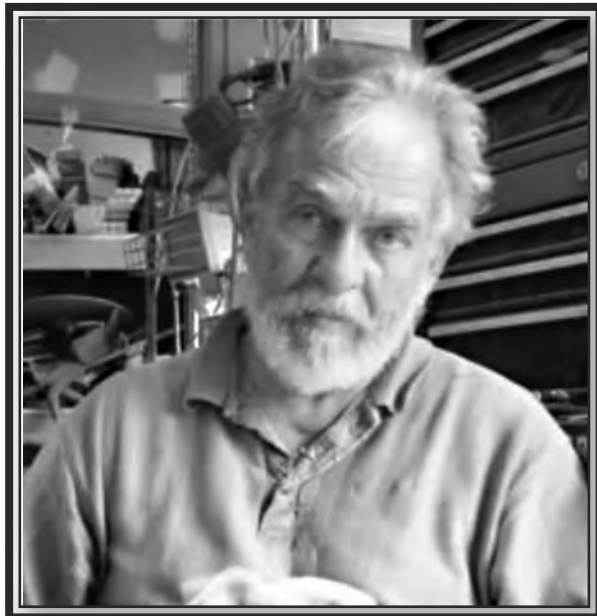

Happy New Year 2026!

Celebration of Life.

THE VOICE

News from the Volcano Community Association

January 2026

Aloha Volcano Ohana,

2025 is now history, and it reminds us all of just how quickly time passes, and just how important it is to make the most of our time here, and actually do all that we can in order to make a positive difference.

Your Volcano Community Association has been doing just that, and as a volunteer organization, WE NEED YOUR HELP! A very small fraction of our neighbors in this community raise their hands to volunteer and try to help improve our community, and if you are reading this and you have yet to be actively involved, we urge you to make this your New Year's resolution, to give back to your community in 2026. Please come and join us.

The Volcano Community Association Annual Meeting will be held on Tuesday, January 27, 2026 at the Cooper Center Meeting Hall starting at 5.30pm.

Refreshments will be available. Please arrive at 5:30 to renew your VCA membership or to become a member, and the meeting will begin promptly at 6:00pm. This is a chance for you to meet your VCA Board of Directors, and to learn more about the organization and its many initiatives and efforts in our community.

You will also be introduced to and hear short presentations from leaders with other organizations in the community, such as Volcano School of Arts & Sciences, Hawaii Volcanoes National Park, Volcano Art Center, our local Rotary Chapter, Forest Overlay Committee, Volcano Health Collaborative, and Volcano Planning Committee, to name a few.

How Is the VCA Actually Working to Improve Your Community?

The VCA has always had our community's best interests at heart, as we respond to the needs shared with us by our community members. Past results point to the creation of the Cooper Center, Volunteer Fire Station #19, improvements to the VCA Monthly Meetings are held on every third Monday at 5.00pm at Cooper Center. Please notify the VCA Board via vcaboardcontact@gmail.com so that we can prepare a seat at the table. VCA always welcomes volunteers with great energy and ideas.

VCA Board: James Morgan – President, Elaine Lee – VP, Jane Field – Treasurer, Directors: John Lakatos, Ed Clapp, Blair Norris and Kim Weisenborn.

Refuse Station, Annual 4th of July Parade, Donations to the VSAS for student scholarships, Food Basket, etc..., but improvements are often not easily won.

In 2025 the VCA and several subcommittees have made notable progress toward improvements to the Volcano Community.

We all owe a great debt of gratitude to our neighbor and VCA member, Kathleen Mishina, who has worked tirelessly towards bringing Health Services to this underserved community. She created the Health Needs Survey recently, and with the help of her daughter, was able to produce an impressive comprehensive analysis based on results received back from the community. The Volcano Health Initiative, which she has submitted to various local law makers and committees, who so far have been very supportive.

Additionally, the Volcano Health Collaborative, formed 15 years ago, has been reinvigorated by leaders in our community, and they will be joining forces in an effort to get this Health Initiative across the line – again, improvements are often not easily won :) A community meeting is planned for February to share updates on the Health Initiative, and further meeting details will be provided in the February newsletter.

Also, based on concern expressed by many in our community, The Forest Overlay Committee was assembled earlier in 2025, comprised of both VCA Board members as well as community members with vast knowledge and experience in this arena. Working with both the community, state and county representatives, and government agencies, the FOC has made encouraging strides towards sensible protections to this special and fragile forested environment we are blessed to call home.

And the Volcano Planning Committee, again comprised of long-time leaders in our community, as well as VCA leadership, has been actively working on community improvement initiatives for ages, and appear to be poised to bear tangible fruit.

Listening to community input, improvements and added safety measures to Highway 11 between Mt View and Volcano Village, have been proposed to elected officials and government agencies, and it looks as though we will all be the beneficiaries of those efforts in the near term, thanks to the efforts of diligent and determined volunteers in Volcano.

Without community engagement and effort, none of these volunteer community organizations would exist, nor would any meaningful improvements to this beautiful community we all call home. Please join us and become a steward of this special place, and make the time to do your part, as it is kuleana we all share.

Volcano School of Arts & Sciences January 2026 News

Volcano School Celebrates 25 Years

The Volcano School of Arts & Sciences 'Ohana celebrates its 25th year of providing quality education to our keiki. We offer our deepest mahalo nui loa to the countless people--founders, kumu, staff, parents, graduates and community partners--who have dedicated hard work, good will, and mana'o over the past quarter century since the initial planning meetings 25 years ago.

Founder Dina Kageler is one of the selfless givers. "When the state legislature passed a law allowing the creation of public charter schools in 1999, we immediately began working on an application to start a school in Volcano. I had two very young children and wanted a more hands-on, experiential learning environment than was available in a regular public elementary school," she said.

That original group of parents, educators, and community members envisioned a place-based school unique to our area. "Kilauea was in our backyard; we wanted to use this place that was so important in Hawaiian culture, as well as being a national park and UN World Heritage site, as one focus of our curriculum." Kageler said, noting that they wanted to create a good foundation. "Since then it's grown in more directions than we anticipated and succeeded more than we'd dare to have hoped for," she continued.

In addition to being a founder and parent, Kumu Kageler served multiple terms on the VSAS governing board and was the school's long-time music and art teacher. She spearheaded a defining aspect of VSAS for many years: the Spring Musical. For 17 years students learned the natural history of the area by doing a live performance of theater skits, puppetry, and musical numbers of original songs (many of which were composed by Kageler).

With this unique education, VSAS graduates have gone on to success in many fields: a USGS volcanologist who found her calling in elementary school, a speech-language therapist, a Native Hawaiian Harvard University graduate, a NPS law enforcement officer, as well as many others.

However, this is the primary purpose in VSAS looking back on what we've built: to see where we are now, and how we can build on that foundation to best serve our current and future students. To that end, throughout the first semester Kumu Wolfgang's fifth grade class (i.e., The Wolfpack) has created an oral history of VSAS.

Kumu Xanthe (also a founder) put the students in contact with the other founders and others involved in those early days. The students planned their questions and interviewed as many as they could. Why did you want to start the school? Do you have any kids? What do you think about the new high school? Kumu Star Carlin--founder and retired VSAS 3rd/4th grade teacher--visited the class waving a clipboard and asked, "Why was this important at the beginning of our school?"

Are you curious about why--or about any other memories of the early days of VSAS? Find out at the VSAS Ho'ik'i'iki 2026 at the Volcano Art Center Niaulani Campus. In addition to artwork from many students, The Wolfpack will share their oral history as we as a school community move into the next quarter century. Mahalo nui loa to all and best wishes for the new year.

January 2026 Events & Updates at Hawai'i Volcanoes National Park

HAWAII NATIONAL PARK, Hawai'i – January kicks off the new year off with a flurry of special events! It's Volcano Awareness Month, ten 2026 fee-free dates have been announced, and park ranger programs at Kīlauea and Kahuku are going strong. Plan ahead for these events, photos are available:

Kīlauea Volcano Eruption. For more than a year, Kīlauea volcano has been erupting episodically from its north and south vents within the summit crater, Halema'uma'u. The 38-and-counting eruptions are contained within Hawai'i Volcanoes National Park. The eruption is in a closed area but is easily visible from many open areas along the caldera rim. Stay out of closed areas! Hazards include volcanic gas, steep unstable cliff edges, earth cracks and the potential for falling airborne rock material.

During eruptions, park visitation surges, traffic is heavy and parking is limited. Plan ahead and check the park website for eruption viewing locations, parking tips, and more. Want to know when Kīlauea is erupting? Sign up for free Volcano Notification Service emails through the USGS Hawaiian Volcano Observatory.

Volcano Awareness Month. January 2026 is the 17th annual Volcano Awareness Month (VAM) on the island of Hawai'i! Throughout the month, the USGS Hawaiian Volcano Observatory (HVO) scientists, along with close partners, will promote the importance of understanding and respecting the volcanoes on which we live. Numerous VAM events are happening in Hawai'i Volcanoes National Park, and more are scheduled outside the park. Go to the USGS HVO website to download the calendar and find out more.

Park Events

Construction Updates

Phase Two of the Disaster Recovery Project is underway and includes the rehabilitation and redesign of Kīlauea Visitor Center (KVC). The structural steel support for the covered hālau (pavilion) on the west end of KVC is up, the roof and wood framework on the new restrooms is visible on the east end, and septic installation is underway. Work to convert offices into visitor areas, increase space for the Hawai‘i Pacific Parks Association (HPPA) store, and exhibits in English and ‘ōlelo Hawai‘i is ongoing. KVC, its restrooms and sidewalks, are closed during the project, and should reopen in late 2026. In the meantime, park rangers and the HPPA store have relocated to a temporary Welcome Center in the park and continue to serve visitors.

Find Us at the Welcome Center! Kīlauea Visitor Center is closed for renovation, but park rangers, the NPS Passport stamp station, Junior Ranger books, visitor services and the Hawai‘i Pacific Parks Association store have relocated to the Welcome Center at Kilauea Military Camp (KMC). Take Crater Rim Drive West, a little over a mile from the park entrance and park at the adjacent ballfield. Parking in front of KMC is for registered guests only. The Welcome Center is open daily from 9 a.m. to 4:45 p.m.

Got Water? Visitors should bring their own water to Hawai‘i Volcanoes National Park. The water station at Kīlauea Visitor Center is unavailable during renovations. A drinking fountain is available at Uēkahuna, and the bottle-filling station will be reinstalled there soon. Water is available for purchase at Volcano House.

Highway 11 Power Pole Replacement. HELCO’s Line Relocation and Replacement project is nearly complete. Line installation on new poles near the park entrance will begin soon to provide more reliable electricity for the park. More information and the Environmental Assessment can be found online.
