Job opening: have you ever been interested in joining a board of directors, and making sure it all toes the line by keeping accurate written records. We need a Secretary as one of our officers. Main job is keeping written records of all meetings. And like the rest of us, You'll get paid absolutely NOTHING, this is a VOL-UNTEER position. Doesn't that sound like fun. Please contact Linda Ugalde at kilaueatutu@gmail.com if you'd like to be considered.

We are seeking a Grant Writer to assist Volcano's Cooper Center Community Pantry in applying for grants in support of our food pantry program. This program, serving our surrounding community in Kau and Puna Districts, aims to improve community food security. If interested, please contact Linda Ugalde. Mahalo

Volcano Rotary November 2025

Rotary brings back a holiday tradition Lights! Cookies! Action!

Last year, our Rotary Club of Volcano teamed up with the Volcano Art Center to start a new tradition in the village: a Christmas tree lighting ceremony that kicked off the holiday season. We were all pleasantly surprised when almost 200 people turned up for the event on the day after Thanksgiving.

It was a true community effort. The Art Center provided our Christmas tree — the 30-foot-tall remains of a once vibrant but now dead ‘ōhi‘a, which was festooned with eight strands of colorful lights. Volunteers from a local church donated hot chocolate, coffee, tea and cookies. Others set up a table where youngsters could make their own Christmas ornaments. Luminarias lined the art center’s parking lot. Rotary members sold $1 hot dogs and passed out 100 paper glasses that turned the tiny lights into dancing bears, angels, swaying bells and more. And, of course, Santa was there.

This year we’re bringing it all back again – and hope that there will be even more ways to join in the party. In addition to the food and activities, we’re planning to have more music, lights and maybe even a little bit of snow to get everybody in the holiday spirit. And the Art Center’s gallery will be open late to help everyone jump start their holiday shopping.

For our Rotary members, it’s all part of what we do best, helping wherever we can in the community. We think Volcano is the best place to live and we want to share that enthusiasm with all the people who live and visit here. After all, we are one of coolest places in the state, literally and figuratively.

So please plan to join us for our second annual Christmas tree lighting party from 5 to 6:30 p.m. Friday, November 28 at the Art Center’s Ni’aulani Campus on Old Volcano Road. And then watch for our Christmas cookie sale at the Sunday farmer’s market in December.

Cooper Center Toy Drive

The holidays are about family and giving. Sadly there are families still struggling to pay for groceries and bills. There is very little if any leftover for Christmas and other holiday gifts. If you are able to spend a little on gifts or gift certificates, we hear teenagers like gift cards from Hot Topic in the mall and Basically Books (334 Kinooole) in downtown Hilo. Board games and art supplies are also great (no clothing). You can even order from Amazon and ship to Cooper Center Toy Drive, P.O. Box 1000, Volcano, 96785. Drop off gifts unwrapped at the CC Bookstore/Thrift Shop and we will be having a wrapping party next month. Mahalo for your generosity!

Aloha Volcano Ohana,

My how time flies, as the Fall and Winter holidays are already upon us, again! We on the VCA Board are wishing you both good health and happiness, and hopeful this will be a time for creating special and lasting memories with family and friends. However, not all in our community are blessed with supportive family and friends, so please reach out to those who may not be as fortunate, as this gesture of kindness and inclusion will likely be much more impactful than you might think possible. Malama Pono and Live Aloha.

Volcano Health Needs Survey Update

The Volcano Community Association would like to again thank all of you who have completed and submitted the recent VCA Health Needs Survey found on the middle pages of the August edition of the Cooper Center Newsletter. The VCA BOD will be reviewing the results and making recommendations, and a summary of the results will appear in the December newsletter. It will be with community-wide participation that this survey demonstrates the true need for the services in the Volcano community, and with the actual needs demonstrated and documented, enables next steps towards bringing these services to our doorstep.

Getting To Know Your Neighbors – Lava Rock Café

Owners Ola and Kathy Tripp are both Hilo natives who, with their five kids, have lived in and been an integral part of the Volcano Village community for many decades now. They initially acquired the Kilauea General Store in September of 1987, and while striving to maintain the character of the original, they have continued with improvements and innovations to the property over the many years, in order to best meet the needs of this unique community.

Ola and Kathy Tripp & the Tripp 'Ohana

VCA Monthly Meetings are held on every third Monday at 5.00pm at Cooper Center. Please notify the VCA Board via vcaboardcontact@gmail.com so that we can prepare a seat at the table. VCA always welcomes volunteers with great energy and ideas.

VCA Board: James Morgan – President, Elaine Lee – VP, Jane Field – Treasurer, Directors: John Lakatos, Ed Clapp, Blair Norris and Kim Weisenborn.

Following through on a strong desire to create a place for families to have a comfortable gathering place to enjoy onolicious and affordable local-style food, they opened Volcano's Lava Rock Café in 1997. Still known for being the home of Liliko'i Passion Fruit Butter, not to mention some tasty Kalbi ribs, the menu has a little something for everyone.

Tutu was a Master Hawaiian Quilter and grandma Leimomi was a Master Lauhala weaver, both Hawaiian practitioners who heavily influenced the opening of Kīlauea Kreations back on July 4th, 1995. Initially a quilt shop, but transformed into a quilt supply and quilts and crafts consignment store, in order to better meet the needs of this artsy community. Patriarch Ola is also there for you when your catchment tank runs dry, offering delivery via H2Ola water hauling (you've seen the truck :).

Kilauea Kreations Aunty Laura Rodrigues doing what she loves best after 29 years & Former 30 year KK employee and talented quilter Linda Sackett.

And it doesn't end here, as there is Kilauea Kreations II down in Hilo's Manono Marketplace, and also HA Café, offering fresh pressed juices, smoothies, coffees, breakfast, and a diverse menu which also includes gluten-free and vegan options. There is always going to be a Tripp family member, whether actual blood or marriage relation, or the larger extended family member via being a longtime dedicated employee, giving it their all to do the very best they can towards meeting the needs of this community.

The Tripp 'Ohana exemplifies love and dedication, and a willingness to not only work hard, but to strive to innovate as needed to truly serve the community they so dearly love. The fact that they and their businesses have persevered through the 2018 eruption events as well as COVID, is strong testament to that fact. The tenure of their longtime employees, such as Aunty Laura Rodrigues, who has passionately overseen Kilauea Kreations for the past 29 years, or former employee of 30 years and quilting enthusiast, Linda Sackett, tells you everything you need to know about this exceptional entrepreneurial family – they are good people who know how to take care of those around them, and Volcano is lucky to have them!

November 2025 News

FUN-Raising at Volcano School

Live entertainment! Face painting! Dunking booth! A rummage sale, silent auction, food vendors and much more. The second annual Volcano School of Arts & Sciences Ho'olaulea was our best ever. Unlike last year's day of liquid sunshine, it was a beautiful, sunny day so even the weather cooperated. We are deeply grateful for the huge outpouring of support from everyone who made this event such a great success: our 'ohana, haumana, faculty and staff and our generous donors. Mahalo to all who continue to help VSAS flourish and serve our students, our families and our community. And a special shout-out to all our vendors: Action 4 Animals, Bella Anela Jewelry, Da Fries, Delightful & Delicious, Greek'd Out, Hilo Lunch Shop, Hot Lava Latte, Ka Lehua Sweets & Bake Shop, Maggie Klein, MoonSun Art Gallery, Paradise Preserved, Raising Cane, Ray of Sunshine Kreations, Sending Smiles, Taylor's Bears & Buddies, Tiare Pires-Nelmida, Wao Kele Designs. We hope to see you all next year!

This year's Scholastic Book Fair, which kicked off at the Ho'olaulea and continued through October 2, was also rousing success. Sales exceeded $5,000 and all the teachers received all the books they requested for their classrooms. Mahalo nui loa to our large and enthusiastic team of volunteers who made this all happen. And a special mahalo to all our volunteers: Lauren Barrett, Judi Bolick, Andrew Christie, David Cruz, Alida

Gandy, Amanda Greenway, Heather Henning, Tiani Kinney, Lydia Meneeses, Jennifer Miller, Stacey Morton, LM Nance, Alex Quintana, Jessica Starbuck, Yesenta Sen'Gerni, Kekai Tuvera, Melody Thornhill, Shane Yeakle, and Liann Young, all under the direction of Lisa Barnard and Kim Miller. Mahalo nui loa to everyone--we are truly grateful for your support.

Native Hawaiian Forest Restoration Tour

Want to get rid of those invasive plants in your yard? Want to see it restored to its original native Hawaiian forest conditions? Want to know which native plants grow well in Volcano?

If so, you are invited to join the Volcano Community Foundation for a tour of the yards of two Volcano residents who have been diligently working to bring their forested lots back to their original state.

The tour will begin at 9 am Saturday, November 15. We will meet at the Cooper Center to carpool to the homes in Mauna Loa Estates. You will have a chance to walk through each property, getting helpful and insightful hints along the way.

The cost of the tour is $30. Space is limited to minimize damage to the properties, so make your reservations as soon as possible by emailing volcanocommunity@gmail.com or calling us at 808-895-1011.

Thank You all Trunk or Treaters

Halloween was a great success this year thanks to all my people who took the time to decorate their trunks and hand out candy to the keiki. Parents are also thankful to have us all in one place, out of the rain and under lights.

I would also like to thank our sponsors; Volcano Community Association, Volcano Seniors and Cooper Center Council for their donations of prizes, and candies.

November 2025 Events & Updates at Hawai'i Volcanoes National Park

As most of you may know, our one and only Volcanoes National Park is “closed” for now, during the government shutdown. However there is still much you can enjoy.

1. The gates are open as no staff to man.(free entry)
2. The Volcano House with their restaurant and bar are open for their regular hours
3. KMC has their store, restaurant, bar, and bowling lanes, as well as their gas pumps.
4. The Volcano Art Center Gallery in the Park is Open from 9am to 5pm daily

Next item..one thing the government can't close down is Madame Pele, you can always go and enjoy her...have fun#!

The Kahuku unit is not currently open or accessible at this time. In general, other areas within this park remain as accessible as possible. Visitors should be aware that while some services are unavailable visitors are expected to protect park resources by following all regulations and “Leave No Trace” practices.
